Dear families,

Today we have seen lots of wonderful smiles and lovely hairstyles for our school photograph day!

HARVEST

Next week, we will be celebrating Harvest within school by learning songs and poems. We will not be asking for Harvest donations, as I know that in the coming weeks, we have our bring a bottle competition, bring an item for the Winter fair and we will also be holding our annual raffle. Year 1 - 6 (Classes 3-14) will be celebrating with an assembly on Tuesday morning. We will be walking to St Matthew's Church for our assembly. It will be lovely to have 12 classes altogether at church, as this is the only space where we can be together (our school halls are not big enough for more than 6 classes). On this occasion, due to fire restrictions, we will not be inviting parents. EYFS and Y1 Parents will be invited for our Christmas celebrations at church instead - see dates below.

Congratulations to our Stars of the Week!

Class 1	Jaxon B
Class 2	Rayan K
Class 3	Braygen S
Class 4	Murwarid N
Class 5	Jake D
Class 6	Maisie M
Class 7	Sarah G
Class 8	Liliana K
Class 9	Gracie S
Class 10	Yannis C
Class 11	Jacob M
Class 12	Stacey O
Class 13	Layton B
Class 14	Dominika A

Family Homework

Remember that our school website has lots of ideas for work that you and your child can complete together. Perhaps this is something that you can do together during the half term holiday.

Core homework and family homework is available here:

Class Assemblies

After half term, we start our class assemblies.

Throughout the year, each class has a class assembly where the children share with parents all their learning. These assemblies take place in the main hall at 9:30am on a Friday morning and are led by Mrs Bird, Deputy Head Teacher.

We do hope that you can join us.

Dates are as follows for next ½ term:

Friday 15th November – Class 14

Friday 22nd November – Class 13

Friday 29th November - Class 12

Congratulations to Miss Jones (Mrs Avery) on the birth of her baby boy, enjoy this very special time together!

SCHOOL PHOTOS – Today we have had the school photographer in school. Your child should have brought home a card with a QR code on it for you to scan to see your child’s photograph. You can then order direct from the photography company.

Thank you for your support, have a lovely weekend.
